

Additional Disclosure: Investigative Consumer Report

For use when the consumer report includes personal interviews with references, neighbors, or associates — FCRA §1681d.

{Employer Name} may request an investigative consumer report about you as part of your application for employment. An investigative consumer report is a consumer report in which information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, associates, or others with whom you are acquainted or who may have knowledge of such items of information.

The report will be prepared by SafestHires, located at Broomfield, CO, and reachable at admin@safesthires.com.

You have the right to request additional information concerning the nature and scope of any such investigation. If you make a written request within a reasonable period of time after receiving this disclosure, we will provide a complete and accurate written disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation.

You are also entitled to receive a copy of the document titled A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, which has been provided with this disclosure.

Applicant
acknowledgment

Printed name

Date

SafestHires · Broomfield, CO · admin@safesthires.com

This template is provided for informational purposes and does not constitute legal advice. Review with counsel and adjust for your jurisdictions before deployment.